```
/
 * inprdr – Asks the user to input some value or string and stores it using mall oc.
 *
 * @return x0: Pointer to the input buffer.
 *
 * Registers used: x0, w8, lr
 * Registers saved: lr
 */

.text
.global inprdr
    inprdr:
        // Save return address
        str lr, [sp, #-16]!

        // Read from stdin into a buffer
        mov x0, #0
        ldr w8, =1024                   // Declare the buffer size 1024 bl malloc                       // Allocate memory and get the pointer in x0
        str x0, [sp, #-16]!             // Store the pointer on the stack mov x2, #1024                   // Set size of buffer mov x8, #63                     // Linux syscall number for read STDIN_ FD

        mov w1, w0                      // Move the malloc pointer into w1 mov w0, #0                      // STDIN_FD is file descriptor 0 svc 0                           // Linux syscall to read from STDIN_FD ldr x0, [sp], #16               // Retrieve the malloc pointer from sta ck

        // Restore return address and return
        ldr x30, [sp], #16
        ret
```